The Formula for
An Unlimited Happy Life
www.Formula4.io

Little Firefly struggles to make his light shine like the other fireflies. Feeling sad, he meets a wise old firefly who teaches him that love—embracing both happiness and sadness—will help him shine. By opening his heart, Little Firefly learns to let his light glow and later shares this wisdom with others, helping them shine too.

CREATIVES

As night falls in the meadow and the butterflies are coming home
to rest,

Little Firefly is waking up
from his long nap...

and starting to climb up the tall meadow grass, getting ready to...

CREATIVES

Look at me. I can fly.
Said little Firefly.

CREATURES

So can we. So can we.
said all the other fireflies.

CREATIVES

We can shine.

We can shine. Look at us, we shine.

CREATIVES

Continued all the other fireflies as they brightly blinked into the sky.

CREATIVES

I don't shine. What about mine?

What about mine? Mine doesn't shine.

This little light of mine.

CREATIVES

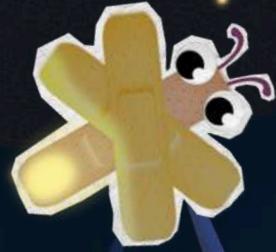

It doesn't shine.
Said little firefly...

CREATIVES

Open your heart, little firefly.

Open your heart. Open your heart and let your love shine.
